Press Distribution List by PR Agency Berlin

Distribution List ++++++ Press Contacts ++++++ Press

Our media distribution list contains all of the most important daily, weekly and monthly newspapers, magazines, trade publications, renowned TV and radio broadcasters and leading online platforms including “social networking communities” which have become important and effective opinion-creating forums.

For us, distributing to the press is never a matter of “scattering”, but instead is carried out with a phone call to the respective editorial office to announce the coming press release. Only by taking this extra time and care can the goal of having press releases published in the appropriate media be achieved.

We currently have 6871 media in our press distribution list and this number is growing daily.

We would be pleased to put together for you a list of influential media in your field with which we have personal contacts in the editorial office.

You are a journalist or editor and would like to be included in our press & media distribution list?

Please send us an Email with your field of specialty and contact information.

Here is a diverse sample of some of the publications with which we have direct press & media contact:
