PR Agency Berlin

Since 1998, we have been achieving excellent results with our Public Relations – classic and below the line (e.g. with our Event Management Berlin division).

We work on assignment as “undercover agents” or directly for our clients. Our staff has been active in the past few years for global players such as adidas AG, for communications agencies, for small and mid-size companies (ranging from 1 to 100 employees) and numerous internet platforms (e.g. gestohlen.org or Veranstaltungstechniker.de) – all of which have achieved great attention due to our professional Public Relations.

Our clients are as diverse as the projects they entrust us with.

From the little tea shop around the corner to Web 2.0 platforms on to international consulting firms, all kinds of businesses have benefited from our services.

Together, we find the best and most unique PR possibilities and are happy to work on even the tightest budgets which is why a Press Release from PR Agency Berlin starts at a mere € 60.00 + VAT (all inclusive).

We orient ourselves to your business and find the right words. To quickly, affordably and successfully reach your goals, PR Agency Berlin has developed in-depth experience in the business world and a highly functional network of over 500 journalists, PR managers, advertising copywriters in Berlin and native-speaking translators (for nearly all languages).
