The PR Agency Berlin - PR Agency Berlin

Since 1998, we've been achieving excellent results with public relations - classic or below the line (for example, with our division: Event Agency Berlin). We're active in our agency's mission, as undercover agents or serve our clients directly.

In the past, our employees have gained lots of experience by working for global players such as Adidas AG, communication and advertising agencies, small-sized and medium-sized businesses (100-100 employees) and many Internet platforms (e.g. gestohlen.org or Veranstaltungstechniker.de)

for which we've professionally implemented PR activities that gained them plenty of attention

Our clients are as varied as the projects they entrust us with.

From small tea-store from around the corner to Web 2.0 platforms to internationally operating consultancy, everything is possible.

Together, we find the best individual PR solutions and also don't mind working with very small budgets - for example, the investment for a press release created by PR Agency in Berlin starts at ? 60.00 (net) & all inclusive.

We focus on your business and find the right wordings. To achieve your goals quickly, cheaply and successfully, PR Agency Berlin falls back on a high-functional network of over 500 journalists, copywriters, public relations managers, copywriters, native translators (for almost all languages) and rely on our holistic experiences with the German economy.
